NADA's notes on certification for PPP Loans:

- In the SBA/Treasury PPP FAQs, question 46 establishes a new safe harbor for borrowers who received PPP loans of less than $2 million (and effectively removes the prior May 14, 2020, repayment deadline).
- For loans in excess of $2 million, borrowers will likely be audited (expected to have basis for a good-faith certification).
- If the SBA deems that a borrower's certification was not justified, the PPP loan will not be forgiven and must be repaid.

PPP loan forgiveness will vary with the facts and circumstances of each individual loan and borrower. NADA encourages dealers to provide the application and accompanying documents to their legal and accounting advisors for careful review.
